

alexander Van straten

architecture + furniture

Canvas

This cabinet is the first of a series inspired by folk art: painting on furniture. The tradition to create something unique by painting a simple piece of furniture is known around the world. It tells a story about the owner. That is why Canvas is always made in consultation with the client and their specific needs. Whether it is a dresser or cabinet: Form will literally follow function. The cabinet is made of painted steel and covered with painted leather.

certificate no.

412

object

Canvas

materials

hand painted leather

dimensions

101 x 30 x 223 H

series

1 of 1

alexander Van straten

architecture + furniture

info@alexandervanstraten.com Amsterdam The Netherlands