Stellage

The coffee table seems to be seen as the 'tea cozy' of a room.

We think the coffee table has a prominent role in a home but is neglected, just like a tea cozy. Stellage has a beautifully shaped glass tabletop. This gives a view of the elegant interplay of the wooden framework that supports the top. Just think of how a teacup becomes an object on a table like this. The frame is made of solid American walnut and is polished with hard wax.
